WERE SCARED AWAY.

Chicago Capitalists Were in St. Joseph This Week With a View of Investing.

LAND PRICES STAGGERED THEM

Proposed to Erect a Large Pavilion for Vaudeville Performances to Seat 2,000.

A few days ago a couple of gentlemen came here from Chicago for the purpose of investing several thousand dollars without "waiting for the election of McKinley or any other man on earth."

The gentlemen had their eye on the beach at St. Joseph. They proposed to erect a large and beautiful pavilion for vaudeville performances with a seating capacity of 3,000. Such entertainments are now very popular in the cities and such a structure would add greatly to the attractions of this vicinity to resorters. But the gentlemen did not make arrangements to build. They learned the exorbitant price at which the needed land was held and then hurried out of town.

This is local history repeated over again. St. Joseph and Benton Harbor too, might and would be larger cities if all the owners of real estate possessed the true spirit of enterprise and forsook the idea that it is possible to get rich out of a single transaction in a few feet of real estate.

This trouble will fortunately not be experienced when an organized effort is made after election to build a modern opera house on the Pipestone street site. That land is owned by such enterprising citizens as George A. Mills, James W. Pearl and Sam H. Kelley.

Every week that Benton Harbor goes without an opera house the easier it will be to raise the funds necessary to build one.

HALL IS NOT AFRAID.

"Uncle Sam" Has Not Yet Made Him Remove the Hull of the Reid.

Charles W. Hall, according to all reports, owner of that part of the old steamer Reid which lies in the river, is evidently not afraid of "Uncle Sam" or his threats.

Government notices were served on Hall to remove the boat over a week ago and as yet no move has been made in that direction. Perhaps Mr. Hall has a pull with the United States that will allow him to obstruct navigation and own the river, but before he gets through with it someone else may have the pull to such an extent that the boat will be pulled out and Hall hauled to Grand Rapids.

UNIQUE BALL.

It Will Be Given by Frazell's Full Band in the Near Future.

Arrangements are being made for one of the most elaborate balls ever given in the city to be held in Conkey's hall about Thanksgiving.

The management of the affair is Frazell's full band of twenty-six members who are now rehearsing on the music which arrived from New York last Saturday. Instead of an orchestra the music for the occasion will be the entire band and those who do not care to dance can enjoy the grand band concert. If the first party is a success similar dances will be given during the winter.

ATTACKED BY AN EAGLE.

Two Women Have An Experience Along the River.

Yesterday afternoon while two women, Mrs. F. Corrother and Mrs. A. Stewart, were walking with two little babes near St. Joseph river about three miles from Benton Harbor they were attacked by an enormous bald eagle.

The bird was no doubt in search of prey and when it saw the infants, decided to seize one. Fortunately the women attracted by the noise of the terrible wings, saw the bird when it was within a few feet of them. Getting near each other the women began yelling and throwing clods of earth and clubs at him.

This discouraged him and he retreated a short distance flying the while in a circle and making darts repeatedly at them. The women kept up their yelling and throwing and the ferocious bird thinking his antagonists too formidable finally soared and flew across the river and away to the west.

Meeting of Home Circle.

The Home Circle will meet with Mrs. B. Eastman. Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the following program: Roll call, quotations from Greek authors; music, violin and piano, Mrs. Morley and Mrs. Eastman; History of Greek, the classical age, Mrs. Radcliffe; the French Republic, Mrs. Watson; music, Mrs. Null; character sketch of Plato, Mrs. Jennings; character sketch of Socrates, Mrs. I. R. Duning; character sketch of Herodotus, Mrs. G. L. Smith.

Tetter, eczema and all similar skin troubles are cured by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes at once, and restores the tissues to their natural condition, and never fails to cure. Sold by H. L. Bird.

WILL WED TONIGHT.

Charles Thieme and Miss Jessie Seeley.

Charles Thieme, a young man of St. Joseph, and Miss Jessie, only daughter of Mrs. A Seeley residing at 122 Ross street, will be married at the bride's home this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thieme will reside in the city.

THAT "RECEPTION COMMITTEE"

Members of the Bryan and Sewall Club Will Not Participate.

EDITOR EVENING NEWS:—At the meeting of the Bryan and Sewall club last evening its members who were announced in the evening papers as members of a reception committee for the gold democratic speakers came near being the subjects of an examination as to their sanity. They were released upon making avowals that the announcement was made without their knowledge or consent.

BRYAN AND SEWALL CLUB.

TODAY INSTEAD OF YESTERDAY

The Marriage of Miss Mary E. Gates and Lyman Chesborough.

The announcement in yesterday's paper of the marriage of Miss Mary E. Gates to Lyman Chesborough was a trifle premature as the ceremony did not take place until today.

This forenoon at 11:30 Miss Mary E. Gates, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William Gates, residing on the corner of Washington and Ross streets was united in marriage to Lyman Chesborough of Galesburg, Mich. The ceremony was preformed by the bride's father assisted by Rev. George B. Simons. This makes the fourth daughter, one son and one grand daughter whose wedding ceremony has been preformed by Mr. Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Chesborough left for their home in Galesburg this afternoon.

ONE VOTE MORE.

Capt. McDonald Would Get It If V. A. Shankland Could Vote.

V. A. Shankland has written a letter from Sand Lake booming Captain James McDonald for county treasurer. In the letter he says:

It was in the winter of 1893. The Benton Harbor Sunday School Union was supporting a union Sunday school in their chapel on Centre street, at a cost for rent, fuel, etc., of over one hundred dollars per year. Hard times were on us then as now. The gold reserve in our Sunday school treasury had fallen below the 100 million mark by some thirty dollars. Your correspondent, by order of the executive committee, took to the street to find the funds. It was very cold and most people were not good natured. But, as Providence would have it, Captain Mc Donald was "held up" between his lumber yard and the postoffice. The history of the school and its work was spread before him; the cheerful, self-denying labor of the teachers in providing moral and religious instruction for the less prosperous touched the captain's heart. Entering the postoffice he went to the desk, opened his pocketbook, passed over a five-dollar bill saying, "If that don't get you out, call again." Only one or two others in the city did as well during the history of the school. But that is his way of treating a worthy enterprise every time.

FAIR PLAIN.

FAIR PLAIN, Oct. 27. Mrs. C. Hood is very ill. Dr. George Bell is caring for the case.

Miss Annie Knizeley has gone to Chicago to visit for an indefinite time.

Nellie Knizeley is teaching in the Fair Plain school. She is assistant to Miss Galvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gorden made a trip to Three Oaks last Saturday and Miss Gorden returned home with them on Sunday.

We regret to learn that we shall loose Mr. Hallman's family in the near future. There are others that will try their fortunes elsewhere also.

NEAT tin plackards announcing the hours of collection of mails from each mail box will be put up on the various boxes at once. Postmaster Nichols received them this morning.

Notice of Registration.

Notice is hereby given that the Boards of Registration for the General Election to be held in and for the City of Benton Harbor, Michigan, on Tuesday, November 3, 1896, will be in session in the several wards of said city on Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31, and on Monday, November 2, 1896, as follows:

First ward At Hall & Nichols' drug store on Pipestone street.

Second ward At W. C. Hovey's carriage store on Pipestone street.

Third ward At the city hall.

Fourth ward At C. J. Brown's grocery on East Main street.

Said Boards of Registration will be in session from 8 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 o'clock in the afternoon of said days.

As the law requires an entire new registration this year, every voter must appear before the Board of Registration in his ward and have his name entered on the registration lists or he cannot vote at this election.

R. P. CHADDOCK,
Dated Oct. 14, 1896. City Clerk.

IT WAS ENTHUSIASTIC.

The Republican Meeting Which Was Held at Conkey's Hall Last Evening.

THE TARIFF IS NOW THE ISSUE.

Addresses by Hon. E. A. Blakeslee and Senator McLaughlin of Detroit.

As the campaign draws nearer to election day political speakers filled with logic and argument supercede the abusive fire-eaters who open the campaign. At the republican rally last night which crowded Conkey's hall, two of the former class of speakers appeared, Hon. Edwin A. Blakeslee of Galien, and Senator McLaughlin of Detroit.

Mr. Blakeslee is the republican candidate for state senator and he is a very pleasant and convincing speaker. He uses the choicest of language and his sentences are rounded out to attract and hold the best attention of an audience. Last evening Mr. Blakeslee was down but for a short address and everyone was sorry that he did not speak longer.

The speech of the evening was made by Senator McLaughlin. He said that the republican party never had more to fight for than now. The party stood for protection and for prosperity and for an honest dollar. The democrats realized that free trade as an issue was dead and as Mr. Bryan says, "Free trade was settled four years ago and now we will settle free silver." The speaker suggested that in this wholesale settling business the people would find themselves in the settlings. Free trade and free silver are twin sisters in misery.

Mr. McLaughlin said that the gold democrats, with their machinery stolen by the populists were only reaping what they sowed. While the republicans commended their stand for honest money their present position was a just retribution upon the party which four years ago appealed to the passions and prejudices of the people and laid the trouble of the Homstead riots upon the republican party.

Mr. McLaughlin assured the people that the tariff and not free silver was the absorbing interest of the present campaign. Protection is what the farmers of Berrien county needed. Protection would build up the manufacturing interests of Chicago, put the idle men at work and furnish a larger and better market for the fruits from our farms.

Both the speakers were liberally applauded.

A GREAT RECEPTION.

It Will Be Given Bryan in Chicago This Afternoon.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27—The Bryan special will reach this city at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It will be met at the Union station by a reception committee composed of delegations from the various foreign clubs and by the Garter Harrison Association composed of nearly 500 men over six feet tall. The order of parade which will be led by Captain J. Farrell, will be as follows:

Platoon of police, grand marshal and aides, band, officers of trade unions, German democratic committee of 100, Italian democratic committee of 100, French democratic committee of 100, Polish democratic committee of 100, Bohemian democratic committee of 100, Hebrew democratic committee of 100, Afro-American democratic committee of 100, American democratic committee of 100, silver committee, people's party committees, democratic central committees, band, presidents and secretaries of ward silver clubs, William Jennings Bryan in carriage drawn by four horses, Cook county democracy, band, citizens on foot.

Bryan will speak five times this evening.

MORE GOLD.

Over $2,000,000 Arrived from Europe Yesterday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Another large shipment of gold, amounting to $2,223,000, was received today from abroad. This consignment was on board the steamship Elmira which arrived yesterday from Europe. Muller, Schall & Co. reported an additional shipment to them of $50,000 in gold from Cuba.

This gold received today brings the total amount up to date since the gold movement began in the latter part of August to $55,658,855. To this must be added receipts at Boston, about $3,000,000; about $7,000,000 at other ports, and the gold from Canada, of which there is no record. The gold ordered and on the way is estimated at $9,000,000.

A private dispatch received today from Alexander Brown of Alexander Brown & Sons, Baltimore, read:

"I know of at least $16,000,000 that will go into various enterprises if the sound money cause triumphs at the election. Most of this money will be raised through sales of securities, negotiations for which have far advanced. Our foreign advices are that millions of foreign capital will be invested here providing gold wins.

WHEAT MARKET.

A Terrible Famine in India Is Predicted.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27. Wheat exhibited an improved tone yesterday and closed 1c better than on Saturday; it got its first direction from the better Liverpool cable, which showed that the market there had made some recovery from the panicky slump of Saturday. But the bulls had to contend with several very bearish factors, and it required a good deal of sharp fighting to hold the advance. The world's shipments last week were 300,000 bu. larger than the week before, and those from Russia and the Danubian ports 600,000 bu. in excess of the week previous and 1,500,000 bu. larger than the same week last year, and the trade was forced to the conclusion that if the Russian crop this year had been unsatisfactory the reserves of old wheat must have been enormous. The northwest receipts were also heavy exceeding those of last year but this was relieved somewhat by the assurance that farmers' deliveries in the country were rapidly falling off. The crop situation in India, however, is fully as serious as ever, and is exciting deep concern in England and a famine in that country is predicted. The money question is an important factor, and as the banks are not disposed to grant much accommodation for speculative purposes pending the election it has tended to discourage speculative confidence. The destruction of the two elevators containing some 1,250,000 bu. of wheat may have considerable influence on the market today, as it takes that much out of the visible supply, and reduces the total stocks by whatever amount has been destroyed.

Death of Mr. Monnier.

Mr. Monnier, an old resident of this county, died at his home on Territorial street last Saturday night after an illness of over a year, aged 57 years and eight months.

The funeral was held from the house Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in Crystal Springs cemetery, Rev. Woodruff officiating.

The deceased leaves a wife, one daughter and three sons to mourn his sad demise.

Our Wednesday and Saturday issue each week until election, will give the report by states of the famous woman's vote for President.

Today we open a new furniture store in the White block, foot of Brunson avenue. See us for fine artistic furniture and low prices.

LOCHREN WON.

Judge Long Will Not Have His Old Pension Restored.

LANSING, Oct. 27.—The case of Justice Long against William Lochren, commissioner of pensions, has been decided against Justice Long.

This case is one which has been watched with great interest by old soldiers in every part of the country. When Lochren was appointed commissioner of pensions about the first thing he did was to reduce pensions and compel the pensioner to show cause why he should receive his former pension. The commissioner did this in cases where no proofs were on file showing that the pensioner was entitled to the higher rate. Among those who received such a reduction was Judge Long of the supreme court of this state, whose pension was cut from $72 to $50 per month.

Mr. Long has fought the case in all the courts for years and yesterday the United States supreme court decided the case in favor of the commissioner of pensions.

The Most Useful Fish.

The cod is the most useful fish in the world. As an article of food, wholesome and substantial, either fresh or salted and dried, it forms a valuable addition to the food resources of the world, and in this and other ways few members of the animal kingdom are more universally serviceable to mankind.

Enormously prolific (one fish producing 9,000,000 eggs) and widely distributed, its usefulness is appreciated almost everywhere. The tongue is considered a delicacy, the swimming bladder furnishes isinglass equal to that got from the sturgeon, while cod liver oil has a worldwide reputation as a medicine and food in pulmonary and other wasting diseases, where its highly nutritive properties give it great value. The Norwegians give cods' heads, mixed with marine plants, to their cows to increase the yield of milk.

The Icelanders give the bones to their cattle, and in Kamschatka the dogs are fed on them, while in the icy wastes, destitute of trees, they are frequently dried and used as fuel.—London Answers.

A Don Quixote Windmill.

A sharp negative was indelibly impressed on the camera of my brain when we caught sight of the windmills of the Campo de Crijitano, one of which, it is said, "the Knight of the Rueful Feature" met with in his celebrated adventure. Poor Quixote does not seem so mad after all when one first sees this row of mills set irregularly on the crest of a hill and looking like nothing one has ever seen—more like a collection of queer primitive toys stuck there by the weird caprice of a lunatic. As one approaches and views them one by one these clumsy looking affairs, propped up like very aged persons, are quite fantastic. No wonder the worthy knight took them for giants!—August F. Jaccaci in Scribner's.

Her Temper.

"That Mrs. Naglet has the worst all round bad temper I ever know."

"Yes, even her hair snarls."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

It is not generally known to farmers that wheat straw is a most valuable food for stock, containing almost as much nourishment as hay.

The first factory for the manufacture of cotton sewing thread was located at Pawtucket in 1794.

Guess She Wasn't Much American.

An "American Woman" in the London Daily Chronicle describes the average Englishman as "a superior being, of active brain, much travel, experience with women and a certain desire to please. American men are an eccentric growth, a hodge podge flung together in a galloping money grabbing civilization, not fully known to themselves." She adds, "In America we all like our fathers and brothers, but we haven't any great admiration for our husbands, although we may be fond of them in a patronizing way."

JUDGING from the enthusiasm of V. A. Shankland it appears certain that Captain McDonald will carry Sand Lake.

PRESIDENT Cleveland will not vote on election day. This is a certain evidence that the president has given up all hope of electing General Palmer.

THE political speakers now talk more like the resident preachers whose lives must back up their teachings. In the early weeks of the campaign there were several tours of evangelists.

EVERY voter in this city should remember that to vote this year it is necessary to register. The registration boards will be in session Friday, Saturday and Monday. Unless you attend to this matter you cannot vote.

INDIA is threatened with a famine such as has not been known for years. The price of our grains and breadstuffs will be sharply advanced as a result but there are few people who will rejoice over higher prices at such a cost.

THEY now say that bets are being made even on the general election result in New York. A man is a fish to bet even on Bryan. Why, he can come here and find a man who will bet a large steamboat against $5 that McKinley will be the next president. Address all offers to Charles W. Hall, owner of the steamer Reid.

A NOBLE SURGEON.

He Saved a Patient's Life at the Peril of His Own.

A certain London hospital has on its staff of physicians one man at least whose heroism has been demonstrated, and his corpselike pallor and faltering gait, although he is in his prime, bear daily witness to this fact.

"It happened ten years ago," said one of the hospital clerks in telling the story, "just after the doctor became a visiting surgeon here. A woman was brought in suffering from a cancerous growth that must in the end prove fatal. The house surgeon in charge, a young man, advised an immediate operation, and he and his assistants were in the midst of it when the visiting surgeon arrived.

"A student was handling the knife and had laid bare the life destroying cause.

"'Careful, careful,' exclaimed the visiting surgeon as the student dexterously cut the flesh. 'If you sever that artery, she may die under the knife.'

"The warning came late, the knife had slit the artery, and the blood leaped into the wound.

"The visiting surgeon had a small cut on his forefinger. To seize the artery so as to stop the flow of blood would necessarily bring the cut in contact with the bacilli of cancer. A moment's delay, on the other hand, meant, perhaps, the woman's death.

"Without an instant's hesitation the surgeon's trained fingers had gripped the artery, which he held firmly until it could be ligatured. It prolonged the woman's life a few months," continued the narrator, "but the poison got into the doctor's system, and he lay at the point of death for weeks."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Hall's Hair Renewer cures dandruff and scalp affections; also all cases of baldness where the glands which feed the roots of the hair are not closed up.

Speed and safety are the watchwords of the age. One minute Cough Cure acts speedily safely and never fails. Asthma bronchitis, coughs and colds are cured by it. H. L. Bird.

On account of the visit of General Harrison to the republican meeting at Goshen, Indiana, Oct. 31st, the Big Four will sell tickets on Oct. 31 good to return until November 2nd, at one fare for the round trip.

Many political speakers, clergymen, singers and others who use the voice excessively rely upon One Minute Cough Cure to prevent huskiness and laryngitis. Its value as a preventative is only equaled by its power to afford instantaneous relief. H. L. Bird.

It is predicted that the winter will be long and cold. The only thing that will keep you warm will be a Hot Water Bottle. Harry L. Bird keeps them.

Tetter, eczema and all similar skin troubles are cured by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes at once, and restores the tissues to their natural condition, and never fails to cure piles. H. L. Bird.

Harry L. Bird says that he has all the best cooks in the two cities using his Extract of Vanilla and he knows what he is talking about. Bird's preparations are always right.

DeWitt's Witch is an antiseptic, Hazel Salve soothing and healing application for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, etc., and cures piles like magic. It instantly stops pain. H. L. Bird, Notice to Voters.

For the accommodation of voters returning to their homes for the presidential election, regular round trip excursion tickets will be issued by the C. C. C. & St. L. R'y to all points in the Central Passenger Committee's territory. To points more than two hundred miles distant from point of starting commence sale Nov. 2; to points two hundred miles or less, sell on Nov. 3, tickets good to return Nov. 4, at the very low rate of one fare for the round trip.

They are so little you hardly know you are taking them. They cause no griping, yet they act quickly and most thoroughly. Such are the famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small in size, great in results. H. L. Bird.

Why Mark Hanna Went.

Mark Hanna went to Boston recently to raise money for his corruption fund. He met some good people. The New York Post informs us that:

"Mr. Hanna spent the forenoon with Stephen M. Weld, a wealthy cotton broker, in his office on State street, and with about a dozen members of the Business Men's Non-Partisan Sound Money league. At 2 o'clock he dined at Young's with sixteen of the solidest men in Boston, some of whom are millionaires many times over and representing great interests. They were Lucius Tuttle, president of the Boston and Maine railroad; Charles F. Choate, president of the Old Colony railroad and Boston Terminal company; Samuel Little, president of the West End Street Railway company; T. Jefferson Coolidge, treasurer of the Arlosheag Manufacturing company of Manchester, N. H.; ex-Minister to France James Phillips, Jr., a wealthy Fitchburg manufacturer; Nathaniel Thayer, director of the Old Colony railroad; Congressman John Simpkins, J. O. Wetherbee, a prominent lumber merchant, Governor Roger Wolcott, George von L. Meyer, speaker of the house; W. M. Crane, paper manufacturer; T. P. Beal, president of the Second National bank; N. P. Hallowell, Henry B. Endicott, and John C. Cobb. Mr. Hanna also met Henry W. Peabody, Samuel Carr, S. B. Pecormain, a member of a well-known firm of stock brokers, and F. B. Sears, vice president of the Third National bank."

He did not have time to call on any of the labor leaders.

A Banker's View.

"The platform of the Chicago convention is more dangerous than the secession movement was to the honor, the perpetuity, and the credit of the United States. Copies of the act of secession tacked to the Chicago platform would add to it an air of respectability. (Laughter and applause.)

"The election of Bryan means that the United States will become the Turkey of the western hemisphere, with Bryan as sultan and Debs as his minister of war. It means, in my mind, the dismemberment of the United States.

"The secession movement did not threaten as gravely in every home as does this damnable plot. The rebels went away and left us our supreme court and our constitution. That which the rebels in the south left us, Bryan and his hordes propose to take away. The question is, will we permit them to do it?" (Cries of "No, no," and applause.)

This is an extract from a speech delivered by George Krerzinge, a Chicago banker, at a millionaire banquet tendered to Mark Hanna. What do you think of it?

If to battle for the self-respect of the individual, for political independence, for a wider and a juster diffusion of the good things of earth, for the rights of those who toil and against the exactions of those who merely take, then, as Patrick Henry—an arch demagogue—said to those who accused him of treason, make the most of it!—New York Journal.

Can't Face the Music.

The following from a prominent Chicago citizen speaks for itself. Mr. Lindblom has made a similar proposition to every goldbug paper in the United States, but has as yet received no response. Here is his proposition:

Chicago, Sept. 17, 1896.

Editor Chicago Evening Journal:

I understand that a newspaper has offered to pay the expenses of a delegation of laboring men to Mexico, to go there and investigate and report upon the condition of laborers in that free silver country.

If this proposition is accepted, then I will make this counter proposition: I will pay the expenses of a delegate of the labor unions of Chicago to go to Italy, the birthplace of law, the cradle of civilization, of art and of literature, the home of religion, to investigate and report upon the condition of labor in that gold standard country. Yours truly, ROBERT LINDBLOM.

In a recent speech Thomas B. Reed uttered this economic gem:

"No man longer shuns labor as his deadliest foe, but welcomes it as his dearest friend."

Right you are Mr. Reed. He has to get down on his hands and knees and beg to be permitted to work. And you are glad of it, are you not, Mr. Reed? As you, and others of your political belief so often say: "If it were not for the rich, the poor would have no work. Make the rich richer and there will be more work."

There is another way, and the American people are going to adopt it.

If the Chicago Times-Herald ever has a lucid moment somebody should ask it if it honestly believes that the silver standard of China has anything to do with the custom of disposing of mentally and physically deformed children? Or if the silver standard of India causes the mother to throw her children into the Ganges to be devoured by the crocodiles? Or if the gold standard of the United States prompts a crowd of "foremost citizens" to burn a black man at the stake, or lynch a bevy of citizens of China, and presumably silverites?—Chicago Journal. (Sane goldbug organ.)

"After prosperity reigns for some time, longer or shorter, men think that hard times are permanently done away with, and get wild, and over-prosperity sets in."

Thomas B. Reed said this. We have heard a great deal of over-production, but this is the first time that over-prosperity has been officially called to our attention. The people of the west are prepared to stand a long siege of over-prosperity. If free silver means over-prosperity, give us free silver, and give it to us quick.

The men who are enlisted this year on the side of the great unorganized millions striving for justice and for wider measure of freedom may well bear with indifference the reproaches of their adversaries. They stand in good company, for the most shining names of history became immortal in the face of just such obloquy as they have now to bear.—New York Journal.

Ever since it became clear that Bryan would sweep the country by a big electoral and popular majority gold has been rolling in by every steamer. Gold is coming down to a parity, and don't you forget it!

He Hold for Peckinpah.

An old Grand Army man recently addressed the following letter to the New York World:

"Mr. McKinley a few weeks ago said to some Grand Army men in Ohio that the national debt is one of honor, and the greatest debt the country owes was to those who preserved it in the rebellion from destruction. He then said we were in duty bound to pay those who loaned money to support the war, and those who fought to preserve the Union to pay them in the best money of the nation (as, I suppose, meaning gold). Now this month there will be something over $35,000,000 pension money given to those who saved our homes, and I ask every one of these deserving men to demand from our government gold, and see if they will get it. If they do not it will show how empty these words are.

"CALVIN E. KEACH.

"Lansingburg, N. Y."

Are they paying you in gold, boys? Where is that "honest money" they are urging you to vote for? It is too good for you. You cannot get a dollar of it. It is locked up in the banks, or is in the hands of gold gamblers, who are fighting for more bond issues, on which you, and your children will pay the interest.

Sentiments of Judge McConnell.

"Whether we succeed or not in this campaign depends upon the intelligence and independence of the common people. Locally it depends most upon the independence and courage of the workingman. I do not recall that any forward movement in civilization was ever initiated and promoted by the well-to-do. A full purse always makes the owner of it satisfied with the prevailing conditions. In order to keep his purse just as full he always appeals to the patriotism of the people, and juggles with all the phrases of the moral code to induce everybody else to regard the present status as sacred. Because he is prosperous he pins on the American flag the awful lie of "sound money and prosperity," and makes us walk under it day after day. By "sound money" he means the present gold standard, and by "prosperity" he means the present condition, which is impoverishing the great body of the people. We are all prosperous because he is prosperous. That is his argument, and, disagreeing with him, he distrusts our intelligence and our patriotism.

"S. P. M'CONNELL.

"Chicago, Sept 28, 1896."

Senator Sherman has summed up the argument for the election of McKinley in one conclusive sentence. "The only way," he says, "in which a Republican administration can correct the evils of the past is by increasing the revenue by a new tariff law and this, I fear, is not practicable." In other words, a Republican administration cannot correct the evils of the past at all. The supporters of Bryan certainly offer a more inviting prospect than that. They at least promise the abolition of existing evils. The Republicans, as represented by their ablest financier, do not even promise anything. They say that the only thing they could do is not practicable. Between a party that offers to do something and one that admits it can do nothing there ought not to be much difficulty in making a choice.

"We have no controversy with Great Britain or her fiscal system. She is free to adopt the one which her statesmen believe will best subserve her welfare and that of her people. Each nation must settle its own domestic policy; each is supreme in that sphere and should brook no interference from the outside. We exercise that undoubted fundamental right ourselves and for ourselves."—William McKinley, Feb. 12, 1891, before the Ohio League of Republican clubs.

This was before he surrendered the Republican party to English gold brokers and bondholders.

If a silver flood is coming—
We never saw one yet—
It will take about a million
Apiece to make us fret!
We've heard too much of parity,
Too much of sound money.
We want a dollar big enough
To go half way around!
We've heard enough of tariff,
Too often we've been sold,
And we're very tired of singing
Hosannas to old gold!
Free coinage now must have fair play,
The silver wave is on,
Get in the swim or out the way,
We're bound to Washington!
—John Ramsey Graham.

They call that man a statesman whose ear is tuned to catch the slightest pulsations of a pocketbook, and denounce as a demagogue any one who dares to listen to the heart-beat of humanity.—William J. Bryan in House of Representatives.

Think what 4 per cent. money would mean to the west! It would build a manufactory by every waterfall, double the cultivated acreage of every county, put new life into every enterprise, astonish the census of every city, lower every transportation rate, add to the price of every farm product and kindle the fire of happiness on every hearthstone.—Senator John M. Thurston in 1893 when he was honest. He is now for the single gold standard.

But our mountain ranges produce a metal which, until a few years ago, was money the wide world over. Silver was one of the standard coins of the United States from the birth of independence until its demonetization crept into the statutes of congress, either by mistake or fraud.—Senator John M. Thurston in 1893 when he was telling the truth. He is now for the single gold standard.

"If one had $1,000,000 in government bonds, you could not realize $200,000 or $300,000 on them at this time, owing to the stringency in the money market."

This statement was made by Mr. Gillman of the bankrupt firm of Hilton, Hughes & Co., the day they failed in New York for $1,200,000. And yet the goldbugs tell you there is plenty of money.

Billions of Dollars.

The world is indebted about $150,000,000,000 and has about $5,000,000,000 of gold with which to pay it. Our country's debts, public and private, have been estimated at $40,000,000,000, and 4 per cent. on that is $1,600,000,000, equal to all the money we have of every kind.

OVER 60 FOREIGNERS.

They Secured Their Naturalization Papers Yesterday and Can Now Vote.

54 ARE NATIVES OF GERMANY.

Four Are Englishmen. Two Are Hollanders and One Was Born On the Emerald Isle.

The voting population of Berrien county received an accession of 61 yesterday.

Sixty-one foreigners were admitted to full citizenship. They renounced all allegiance to foreign potentates and took the oaths which made them naturalized citizens of the United States.

Of the number admitted 54 are natives of Germany, four first saw the light of day in England, two are Hollanders and one a native of Ireland.

It is a matter of considerable concern among local republicans and democrats as to which political organization will be benefitted by this addition to the voting element in the county. Both organizations claim a majority of the number. Here are the names of the new citizens:

James W. Scott, Thomas H A. Heaven, William Kreiger, Fred Gelow, Julius Lampa, Herman Kraft, Fred Schier, John Yohn, George Partinga, Herman Hortog, Charles Will, John P. Ward, William D. NO COURT TODAY.

An Adjournment Taken Until Tomorrow Morning.

The circuit court adjourned last night until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Judge Coolidge remained in the city today.

DON'T FAIL TO REGISTER.

The Opportunity Will be Given Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday are registration days and every voter who desires the right of franchise November 3 must see to it that his name is upon the register of voters for the precinct in which he resides. The first ward board of registration convenes in the city hall and the second ward in the marble shop on Ship street.

INSPECTION PARTY.

Prominent Vandalia Officials In the City.

A noted coterie of Vandalia railroad officials was in the city for a short time this morning. The party included President McCrea, of Pittsburg, General Superintendent H. J. Miller, General Freight Agent M. V. Taylor and Superintendent F. C. Hatch.

The officials are on a tour of inspection. They arrived at 9:35 and departed at 10:10.

BURIED HERE.

The Remains of M. Bready Brought Back to St. Joseph.

The remains of M. Bready, father of Mrs. Harry Wright, of this city, who died Saturday evening, were interred in the St. Joseph cemetery this forenoon, the obsequies being held in the Catholic church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright left with the body for Vicksburg, Miss., yesterday morning and at Logansport received a message bearing instructions from relatives to inter the remains in the cemetery here.

On account of the ill health of Mrs. wright it was thought best to spare her the journey to Vicksburg.

AGAIN ADJOURNED.

The Street Railway Receiver Case to be Heard Friday Nov. 6.

The defendants in the suit brought by the stockholders to secure a receiver for the St. Joseph & Benton Harbor Street railway company asked for additional time and the case was again adjourned yesterday until Friday, Nov. 6.

The complainants are anxious to have the matter speedily desposed of and these repeated adjournments are regarded by them with considerable disfavor. In case of a decision against them in the circuit court they will at once appeal the case to the supreme court.

"BEN KING."

BY F. C. B.

Th' peaches air gettin' meller over near "Old St. Joe,"
There's purty nigh es meny es there war a year ago;
But through each laden orchard soun's a somber whispering,
An' tone of melancholy soun's from all th' birds thet sing
'Bout th' place,
An' they miss your genial face,
Ben King!

They tell es how y' played th' Midway in 'Old St. Joe,
An' hed 'm all a-laffin' 'ith th' jokes y' ust t' know;
An' they'll not forgit about them songs y' ust t' sing,
Thet made 'm all feel weepy, an' the feelin's thet 'ud spring
Tenderes'
For the "mule y' loved th' bes',"
Ben King.

I know of menya feller over near "Old St. Joe"
As talks as tho' y' hadn't left 'm all some years ago,
"Nothin' t' do but live," Ben King, an' so yer livin' still Among th' loved home-people, an' I guess y' allus will—
Roun' them parts
Yer a livin' in their hearts,
Ben King.

ELECTION RETURNS.

They Will Be Received at Republican Headquarters.

The McKinley marching club of this city has made all the necesary arrangements for receiving the election returns, at the club headquarters on Ship street.

The earliest information will reach the headquarters as promptly as the Western Union wires can transmit the same and the messages will be read aloud and bulletined. The club rooms will be made as comfortable as possible so that no inconvenience will be suffered while awaiting the important advices from all over the United States.

SEARS' GREAT SPEECH.

The Benton Harbor Attorney Warmly Received at Buchanan.

Buchanan, Oct. 27—The biggest political demonstration that has been held in this village since campaign operations began occurred last night. It was a rally of republicans and the entire village and the community for miles around was out in force. Over 3,000 people were present.

The meeting was held in the open air and the main address was made by Charles N. Sears, of Benton Harbor. He captivated the audience with his pungent and pertinent, as well as logical oratory, and cheers, deafening and prolonged, punctured the address at frequent periods.

Probate Court.

Estate of Francis Jordan, deceased, last will and testament of deceased admitted to probate and O. O. Jordan appointed administrator with the will annexed of said estate with bond in the sum of $36,000.

Estate of Marcus S. Owen, deceased, administration of said estate was granted Adelaide J. Owen, widow of deceased, with bond in the sum of $5,000.

Estate of Wilhelmina Krause, deceased, an adjournment of the hearing on the probate of the will of said deceased was asked and the hearing continued to Tuesday, November 10, at 10 a. m. to give time for the contest of said will.

WILD MAN'S ANTICS.

He Roams About Port Huron Scantily Clothed.

Port Huron, Oct. 27—Mrs. John Darling, living three miles west of this city, in Port Huron township, reported to the authorities today that there is a crazy man making his home in the woods in the vicinity of her residence, and that at night he roams about scantily clad and making unusual noises. Mrs. Darling says she has seen the man several evenings near the embers of fires built by boys herding cows in the woods, and that last evening his only apparel was a buffalo robe. Tonight Sheriff Mallory will visit the woods and attempt to capture the strange man.

Terrible Accident.

Traverse City, Oct. 27—While out hunting yesterday afternoon at Kingsley, Claude Putnam, 23 years old, accidentally shot himself. He was standing on a log when the gun slipped off the log and was discharged, the full charge entering the abdomen and lodging in the chest. The accident occurred at 1 o'clock and he died at 7. He leaves a wife and two children.

Saw His Best Girl Then Died.

Ridgeway, Oct. 27—Horace Dibble was with his best girl at Mrs. Boyd's residence last Friday night. At 7:30 he stepped out on the porch and was made a target for some unknown person with a revolver. The bullet passed through the left side of his coat. Sheriff Wilson is investigating.

Looks Like Murder.

Menominee, Oct. 27—The body of a man was found by some hunters yesterday at the head of Chappel Rapids in the Menominee river, eight miles above this city. There was a strap around the neck and waist, as though the man had been thrown into the water and anchored.

MADE A BAD "SITTER."

Trouble of Artists With the Princess of Wales In Her Youth.

When the Princess of Wales was a young bride, she was constantly in request for sittings to portrait painters, sculptors and photographers. She was not, however, a good "sitter," and used to pout when compelled to endure the tediousness of sitting in a studio. Mr. Frith, the painter, was engaged to paint a picture of the prince and princess, and he gives a pleasant glimpse of his tribulations with the Princess Alexandra.

The princess, says Mr. Frith, was very young and very beautiful, as all the world knows. She graciously consented to come to my house and to afford me every assistance in the way of sittings for my picture.

The princess is also well known for her kindness of heart. Oh, how that heart would have ached if its owner had realized the aching of mine when I—too soon—discovered that the illustrious young lady did not know that keeping her face in one position for a few minutes even was necessary to enable an artist to catch a resemblance of it!

The first sitting can I ever forget? I did not dare to complain till after two or three fruitless attempts. With downright failure staring me in the face, I opened my heart to the Prince of Wales.

"You should scold her," said the prince.

Just at this time the princess was sitting for her bust to the celebrated sculptor Gibson, R. A., in a room at Marlborough House. I was sent for by the prince, and before I was admitted to an interview I was shown into the sculptor's studio, and found him waiting for a sitting from the princess. The bust was already in an advanced stage. I did not think it was very like, and in reply to Gibson I said so.

"Well, you see," said Gibson, "the princess is a delightful lady, but she can't sit a bit."

At that moment I was summoned to the prince, whom I found with the princess, and I saw, or thought I saw, a sort of pretty, smiling pout, eloquent of reproof and of half anger with me. The prince had something to show me—photographs, I think—and then he led the way to Gibson, the princess and I following.

No sooner did we find ourselves in the sculptor's presence than—after some remarks upon the the bust—the prince said:

"How do you find the princess sit, Mr. Gibson?"

"Now," thought I, "if ever a man was in an awkward fix you are, Mr. Gibson, for after what you said to me a few minutes ago you cannot in my presence compliment the beautiful model on her sitting."

The prince looked at Gibson, and Gibson looked in dead silence at the prince and then at the princess. Then he looked again at the prince, smiled and shook his head.

"There, you see, you sit properly neither to Mr. Gibson nor to Mr. Frith."

"I do, I do!" said the lady. "You are two bad men!"

And then we all smiled, and Gibson went on with his work, the princess sitting admirably for the short time that I remained.—Youth's Companion.

CALIFORNIA

If you are going there by all means inquire about the Burlington Route Personally Conducted Excursions to San Francisco and Los Angeles, which leave Chicago every Wednesday with a Pullman Palace Tourist Car through to destination. The Route is via Denver, the Denver & Rio Grande Ry. (Scenic Line) and Salt Lake City. The cars are fitted with carpets, upholstered seats, mattresses, pillows, blankets, bed linen, berth curtains, toilet rooms, heat and light, and, in fact, all the conveniences of a standard Pullman Palace car; they lack only some of the expensive finish of the Pullman run on the limited express trains, while the cost per berth is only about one-third (⅓) of the price.

ONE week from today is election day.

SOUND money democratic rally next Friday night.

THERE will be a foot ball game between the Benton Harbor and St. Joseph teams next Saturday.

MRS. R. M. Jones will entertain her lady friends at 6 o'clock tea at her home on Washington street this evening.

THE Oriole club will hold an important business meeting in the law office of Hammond & Hammond tomorrow night.

THE recent demand for sand is likely to raise the price. Better get what you want now while it is going for nothing. Apply at THE NEWS office.

THE ladies of the U. O. G. C. will serve meals and lunches election day in the store formerly occupied by Foeltzer, the tailor, on East Main street. Oysters in all styles will be served.

THE Henry C. Rowe circle, ladies of G. A. R., will meet Wednesday, Oct. 28, 2 p. m. sharp, at G. A. R. hall. Important business will come before the circle and it is desired all members will be present.

MRS. L. T. Burridge very pleasantly entertained a company of ladies at 1 o'clock luncheon this afternoon in honor of her friend, Mrs. James Campbell of Grand Rapids, who is visiting in the city.

ALBA Heywood, the humorist, will speak here tomorrow night for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1. Mr. Heywood has delighted many a Benton Harbor audience on former occasions.

MRS. J. A. Graham has left word at the Farmers and Merchants bank that she will accept that $20 bet which J. A. Rowe wanted to put up against Bryan. Mrs. Graham has the money ready but Mr. Rowe has not put up his stuff.

THE Primary Union will meet at 4 o'clock tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon in the Baptist church. The lesson will be taught by Miss May Bisbee. Special preparations are being made for the union Thanksgiving service.

JO. W. WESTCOTT has sold his plumbing establishment on Pipestone street to A. R. Hinkle. Mr. Westcott is a successful business man and will not remain long out of business. He will look after the work on his farm for the present.

THE committee on public buildings of the city council has let the contract of putting a slate roof on the city hall to Alfred B. Emerson for the sum of $250. This was deemed the only sure way of repairing the roof as the iron which is now in use is filled with holes and every time it rains the floor of the council chamber is flooded with water.

YOU will certainly "miss half of your life" if you do not attend the Hallowe'en social given by the young ladies of the Congregational church. The program begins at 7:15, sharp, with several musical numbers, recitations, and some very amusing shadow pictures. Refreshments will be served immediately after the program, in the basement of the church.

THE W. W. T. Chautauquans will meet with Mrs. Dr. Dunning on Morton Hill, next Saturday at 2:30, with following program, Roll call, current events; "The Foundation of France and of the Absolute Monarchy," Francis Hull; "Steps Toward Absolutism," Mrs. Drake; "Sense and Sentiment," Mrs. Dunning; music by Mrs. Morley; reading from Lucile, Mrs. Kerry.

SOUTH Pipestone street is fast becoming a business centre. The flourishing grocery firm of Michael & Beeny are to have competition from Hartleroad & Rush, a Shanghai firm who has rented the mudge store on the corner of Britian. Charles White will start a first class meat market in the new store room just north of Michael & Beeny's and will divide the trade with the Lapoint market on Britian.

THE WOMEN VOTING.

Ladies Are Given a Chance to Express their Choice for President.

The women's vote, now being taken throughout the country, for President, is of great interest to all parties, as it has long been a matter of conjecture what course they would pursue it given the elective franchise. Large numbers of the best ladies in the land are making use of this opportunity to express their own views, and the final result of the woman's vote is looked forward to with great interest. The ladies seem deeply in earnest in this opportunity to express their preference in national affairs. It is true the movement brings into marked prominence a manufacturing firm whose office force is used for receiving and reporting the ballot twice a week, but that fact is simply incidental and does not detract from the profound public interest in the question of the woman's vote. It has been urged that the vote is perhaps more sure to be accurately and fairly counted by the skilled accountants of a business office than when handled by some of the ordinary judges of election. However this may be, the Company is of National repute, and pledge their commercial integrity and honor to an accurate and final counting under oath. Ladies write on a postal card the name of their choice for President. Sign name and give address. Also in lower left hand corner name a Banker or Grocer who knows the fair voter. This card is sent to the Postum Cereal Food Coffee Co., Battle Creek, Mich., and each bona-fide voter receives an acknowledgement of the receipt of her vote. The report may, or may not, be favorable to the candidate this paper supports, but the statement will nevertheless appear exactly as the woman's vote stands, and the reader must form his own conclusions therefrom.

DOCTORING NATURE.

COLOR AND PERFUME OF FLOWERS CHANGED BY CHEMICALS.

Nature's Beauties Are Now Dyed and Doped to Secure New Effects In Shades and Fragrance—Efforts to Produce a Blue Chrysanthemum.

Modern scientists and chemists have no respect for nature. They have lately taken her most delicate creations, the flowers of the field and the garden, and attempted to change their colors and perfumes. Strange to say, considerable success has attended their efforts.

Many fashionable florists both in American and European cities established regular chemical laboratories in connection with their hothouses for carrying on this unique industry. The fad comes originally from Paris by way of London.

The first step in this direction consisted in the artificial dyeing of such flowers as the white carnation, the lily of the valley and the hyacinth. There is a well known New York florist who frequently changes the colors of these flowers to suit the whims and fancies of his wealthy patrons. He finds that he can successfully treat almost any bulbous flower by placing it in a solution containing oxalic acid and the special color which he wishes to impart to the petals of the plant.

It was in this way that the "green carnation," of which so much was heard a year or so ago, was produced. A lily of the valley can be changed from its pure white to a delicate blushing pink by placing the cut flower in red ink. The oxalic acid in the ink opens the pores of the plant and allows the coloring matter to be absorbed. This same New York florist has long been trying to produce a blue chrysanthemum, with the view of pleasing the patrons of the Yale football matches. He has not yet succeeded, but he is firmly convinced that it will only be a matter of time before chemists enable the florist to produce every known variety of color in flowering plants.

In perfuming flowers, and especially in artificially strengthening and reviving the natural odor, florists have gone very far, and it would seem that in this line there is really no limit. In order to revive flowers exhausted by time or carriage, their extremities are immersed in vessels containing a weak solution of sal ammoniac. Their odor is then strengthened by moistening them with an alcohol solution of the perfume or essential oil corresponding to the natural scent.

This is done on a very large scale with violets, roses, hawthorns, etc., the perfumes of which are manufactured largely in France. Two such perfumes are "violettine" and "geranioline." The former is composed of 100 grams of alcohol, 100 of glycerin and 10 of essence of violet. The latter is a similar preparation in which the essence of violet is replaced by geranoil or artificial oil of roses. The glycerin in these preparations is added in order to fix the scent, which would otherwise rapidly evaporate.

A more scientific method of strengthening the odor of flowers before shipping them or placing them on sale is frequently used. They are put into a wooden box cooled externally with ice. In the bottom of this box lies a tube provided with perforations, and through it is sent a current charged with carbonic acid gas and the odor characteristic of the flower. Again, in order to fix the odor, the flowers are sprinkled with a very small quantity of glycerin.

Not content with adding to the strength of scented flowers by this means, the flower dealers, aided by the suggestions of chemists, have gone the length of depriving flowers of the natural odors and substituting others. They have given the fragrant lilac the odor of the rose, the pink the perfume of the violet, and the humble cornflower the aristocratic scent of the jasmine. It is a delicate operation and one that does not succeed with all flowers. It consists in immersing the flower in a bromide solution which divests it of nearly every trace of its natural fragrance. After this it is washed and then perfumed with the odor desired in the manner already described.

The results of these attempts to improve upon nature are not always satisfactory. Flowers which have been doctored or revived by artificial means rarely last long enough to afford any pleasure to those who purchase them. There is, after all, nothing that can rival the natural beauty and fragrance of a flower as it comes fresh from the garden or hothouse, and happily there are still millions of people who would give more for the fragrance of one sweet violet fresh from the woods than all the artificial productions of New York or Paris.—Philadelphia Press.

OUR MILLIONAIRES.

LIKE OTHERS BEFORE THEM SOME ARE DOOMED TO OBSCURITY.

The Only Way to Create Distinction by Wealth Is to Use It—Some Who Will Not Be Remembered Thirty Days After They Are Dead.

The London Spectator once published a list of those it called "obscure millionaires" who had died within the previous ten years. The list was a rather long one. This age is a shopkeeping age, it is true. It is apt, we say, to value men according to their property. Great wealth gives great consideration, and yet, notwithstanding the exaggerated importance of money and money getting, it appears that wealth in the largest measure redeems no man from obscurity; that money in itself, by its mere possession, confers no distinction which even this age values. Its use, and not its possession, is all that can make it a matter of distinction. In our own country, even more than in Europe, wealth exaggerates its own consequence. It is natural that it should, for here, more than there, it is a personal matter. The American millionaire has "made," as he says, his own millions. They represent his own shrewdness, industry, tact, perseverance or "good luck." He is fond, it may be, of reminding us all that it is so. He is a "self made man," and recurs to the time when he was a barefoot boy, or a penniless youth, with some pride, as a proof of how bright a man he is in having changed by his own unaided powers the early poverty for the present wealth.

He feels in his heart he has done a noble work and that he deserves the commendation of mankind for doing it. He is liable to disappointment, as we all know, and it is somewhat strange that, shrewd as he is in money matters, he is so blind in others. For the rest of the world is very busy, and has little time to trouble itself about his success or his failure. Neither can other people see on exactly what grounds a man can claim its applause only for having taken good care of his own interests.

The consideration given to him for his money is given only to his face by those who expect to get something by it. The community would look complacently upon the matter if a sudden revulsion should set him to sweeping the streets tomorrow, would consider him, indeed, quite as important in the last occupation as in that of raking his heaps higher. In other words, it is the wealth itself that is important, if there is any importance in the case. The man who owns it may be very unimportant. In fact, if he is content to be merely its owner, he is sure to be so.

The only way to create distinction with wealth is by the use. What a man does with what he has determines the question of his obscurity. The world is very just and forgets all but its benefactors. The millionaire who uses his millions for his own benefit is like the officeholder who uses his office for his own benefit, or the man of genius who exhausts his genius for his own selfish ends, or, indeed, like any man who, endowed with a trust, uses the trust for his own exclusive use and behoof.

Men possessed of other trusts are not as apt to make this mistake as the men possessed of money. Genius, intellectual power, high spiritual gifts, we are all loud to claim are conferred for the good of humanity. We stand ready to condemn relentlessly the men who, endowed with such gifts, use them mainly for their own advantage. But great wealth, especially if a man has himself won it, is less apt to be considered a trust. The greed for it is great. It is often sought not for itself, but for the supposed distinction it confers. When the young man of energy and ambition looks forward to the attainment of it as the end of his endeavors, he is not led by any miserly desire for money in itself. He has rather the nobler desire of winning distinction and importance by its possession. It is a means and not an end. Pity he should in the years of his pursuit so often change his notion, for his first opinion is right. Wealth can confer distinction. It can bring honor and high consideration. It can make a man's memory fragrant with blessings for centuries. But to do all this it must be used.

There are millionaires in our own country who will neither be remembered nor cared for 30 days after their costly funerals. Their passage from among living men will leave no void, for the stocks and bonds and shares which alone gave them their consequence remain. Mankind has lost nothing, misses nothing. There are others who will be missed in 1,000 places and by thousands of hearts, for though the millions remain, the heart that made the millions a blessing is gone. The man in this case is lost to us, and he was more than his money. There are again some few who so dispose of their thousands that their names and memories are linked for years, for centuries, to the monuments of beneficence they leave behind them, famous the land over, not for their wealth, but for the good deeds their wealth was used for. The millionaire is nothing, his importance nothing, his consequence nothing. We want to know what he does with his millions before we care to remember his name. As a millionaire merely he is like the great poet who never writes, the great orator who has never made a speech, the great inventor who has never invented anything. He had grand opportunities. He could have done so much with his money. He did nothing. He "died worth so many millions." That is all. We stand by his grave and think what a fool he was, another "obscure millionaire!"—Philadelphia Church Standard.
